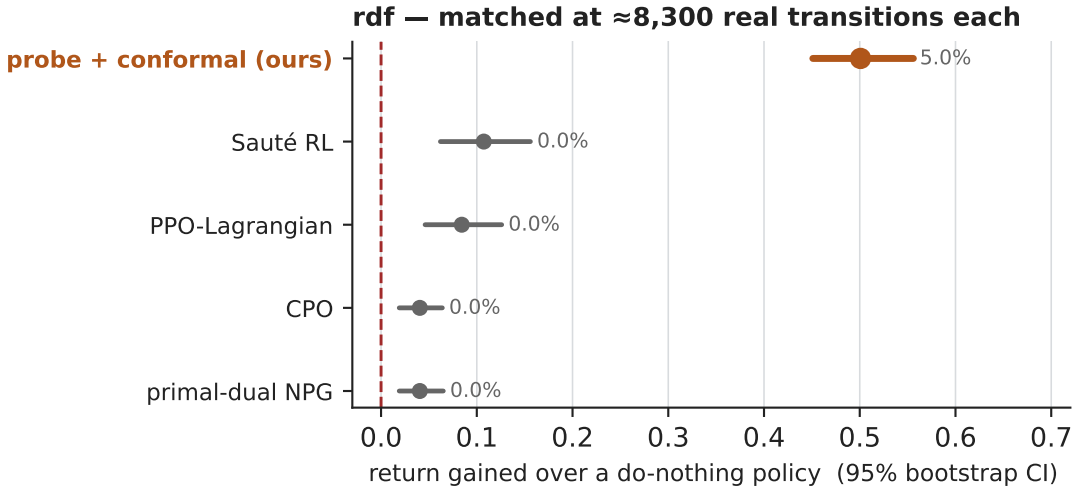
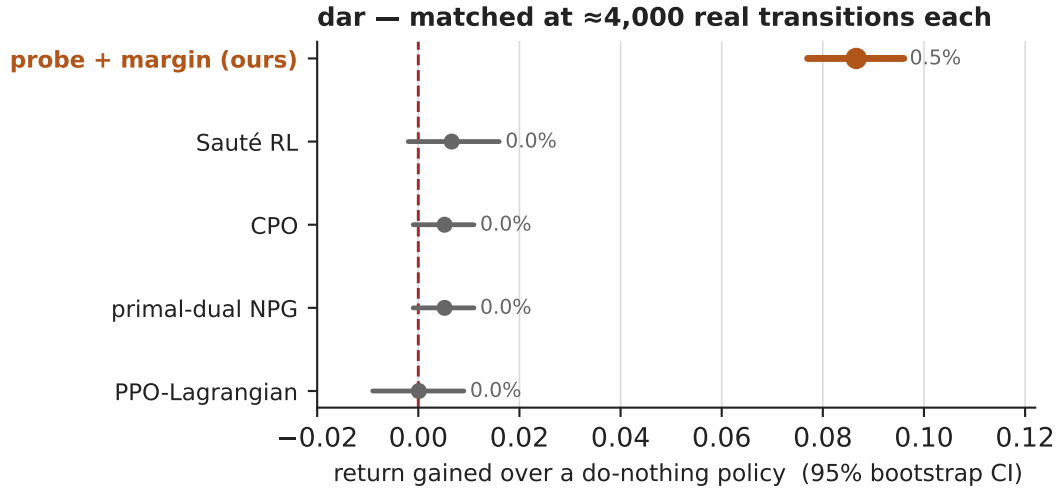
At an equal data budget, the method beats all four published baselines; the dashed line is doing nothing





20 seeds, seed-paired, 20,000-resample bootstrap. The percentage beside each interval is how often that arm violated the constraint — the trade we make, stated rather than hidden.