
Median 4 h 45 min — on the four it recorded. The two largest floods since the gauge was built left no trace at all, and one of the four it did see gave 20 minutes. A median over the days the instrument worked describes the warning available during the floods nobody needed warning for.